

the subpoena to appear, when that is practicable) that the matter may be forthwith referred, and the account proceeded with in the Master's office. And thereupon the Court may in its discretion, if satisfied that the case comes within the provisions of this order, pronounce such a decree as would have been made, had the cause proceeded to a hearing in the ordinary way ; and the decree so pronounced may be either with or without a reservation of further directions and costs according to the nature and circumstances of the case. And the decree so pronounced shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes as it would have been, had the cause been brought to a hearing in the usual way ; and the reference thereby ordered shall be proceeded with in the same manner provided with respect to ordinary references by orders (79, 80, 81, 82) ; and in proceeding with such reference the Master shall have all the power and authority which he would have had and exercised had the matter been referred to him by a decree pronounced according to the ordinary practice of the Court ; and upon the signing of any report, made upon such reference, the case may be set down to be heard upon further directions, or otherwise ; and all proper decrees and orders may be made in the same manner, and to the same extent, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if the suit had proceeded according to the established practice. The pendency of any such motion, as aforesaid, shall not stay the progress of the cause, unless ordered by the Court.

In suits for the redemption or foreclosure of mortgages, the time allowed for the payment of the mortgage money shall in future be six months from the date of the Master's report ; and, where there are several incumbrances, three months only shall in future be allowed to each successive incumbrancer after the first. The time so fixed shall not be further enlarged.
