at any time within eight days after such notice such other party shall have liberty to inspect the same without fee, and may take a copy thereof if he thinks fit ; and at or before the expiration of the eight days, or such further time as the Master shall in his discretion allow, he shall then either agree to pay the costs or adopt the conveyance as the case may be, or signify his dissent therefrom, and shall thereupon be at liberty to tender a sum of money for the costs, or to deliver a statement in writing of the alterations which he proposes in the draught of the Conveyance. But, if he make no such tender, nor deliver any such statement in writing, or if the other party refuses to accept the sum so tendered, or to adopt the proposed alterations in the draft of the Conveyance, the Master shall then proceed to tax the costs or settle the Conveyance according to the practice of the Court. And, in case the taxed costs shall not exceed the sum tendered or the Master shall adopt the proposed alterations in the draft of the Conveyance, then the costs of the proceeding with respect to the Conveyance shall be borne by the other party.

See ante Order 60 of the Court, which is very similar to the above.

3rd April 1845.
Order 52.
Master may fix time for proceedings.

That upon any subsequent attendance before him in the same cause or matter, the Master, if he thinks it expedient so to do, shall fix a certain time or certain times within which the parties are to take any other proceeding or proceedings before them.

English Order.
24th March,
1814.
Particulars of sale.

That the Solicitor for the party prosecuting any Decree or Order of the Court for sale shall be at liberty, in cases in which the Master shall think it fit, to print and disperse as many particulars as shall be thought beneficial under the direction of the Master in whose office such sale shall be, paying sixpence per side for so many printed copies as there shall have been actual bidders at the sale and no more, and that such payment shall be allowed the Solicitor upon taxation of his costs.

See ante Orders 189, 190, and 192, of 1847.

English Order.
21st December, 1833.

Each party shall be at liberty to inspect the entry of all such (Master's) Orders in the said (Master's) Entering Book without fee.

Order 24.
No fee for inspection of entire of Master's Orders.

In setting out the above Orders on the practice in the Master's office, it has not been deemed necessary, and it would extend this work to an inconvenient length to compare each of the above Orders with the English Orders
