

is a question whether it would not be preferable to abolish the vacation, or extend its effect to other proceedings than those named in the Order.

That the penal sum in the bond to be given as a security to answer costs by any plaintiff who is out of the jurisdiction of the Court shall be seventy pounds.

1837.
Security for costs.

An Order for security for costs can always be obtained when the Plaintiff is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.

The day on which an order that the plaintiff do give security for costs is served, and the time thenceforward until and including the day on which such security is given, is not to be reckoned in the computation of time allowed a defendant to answer or demur.

1850.
Order for security, stay of proceedings.

When any solicitor or party shall cause an appearance to be entered or an answer, demurrer, or replication to be filed, he shall on the same day give notice thereof to the solicitor of the adverse party, or to the adverse party himself, if he act in person.

1850.
XLVII.
Notice of all pleadings to be given.

The following is the interpretation clause governing the Orders of 1850.

In these Orders the following words have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, over and above their several ordinary meanings, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, viz.—

1850.
Interpretation.

1. Words importing the singular number include the plural number, and words importing the plural number include the singular number.
2. Words importing the masculine gender include females.
3. The word person or party includes a body politic or corporate.
4. The word bill includes information.
5. The word plaintiff includes informant.

And it may be pretty safely stated, that the same rules of interpretation may be applied to the other rules also.

That no Order shall be made for referring any pleading or other matter depending before the Court for scandal or impertinence unless exceptions are taken in writing and signed by Counsel describing the particular passages which are considered to be scandalous or impertinent, nor unless such Order be obtained within six days after the delivery of such exceptions.

(7).
June 1837.
Exceptions for scandal or impertinence and reference thereof.

It will be observed that the New Orders abolish ex-
