

which the solicitor or agent procuring such certificate and examination shall, until further order be made in respect thereof, satisfy the Registrar therefor, the same however not to be allowed in taxation of costs—Provided nevertheless that this Order shall not apply to office copies of minutes, decrees, orders, depositions, reports, and certificates, in respect whereof the practice shall continue as heretofore.

That from henceforth the original or originals of any affidavit in support of or in opposition to any application by motion, petition, or otherwise to this Court may be read at the hearing thereof instead of office copies as heretofore, and that any party requiring a copy of any such affidavit or affidavits shall be entitled to demand and receive the same duly authenticated by the Registrar in manner before mentioned from the party filing such affidavit or affidavits, who shall be obliged to furnish the same within such time or times as by the present practice the same may be obtained from the Registrar.

That from henceforth it shall not be necessary to file any affidavit of the service of a notice of motion or any affidavit which proves the service of a paper and to take an office copy thereof for use, but the original affidavit may be read and used in the same manner as an office copy would be, and the said original shall be filed on the occasion of reading or using the same.

That in case the solicitor or agent, from whom any office copy of a pleading or proceeding may be be-spoken, shall not deliver the same upon or before the expiration of two clear days from the day of the same being so be-spoken (as on Thursday if be-spoken on the Monday preceding) any further time that may elapse before the delivery of the same shall not be computed against the party to whom such office copy is due, and such office copies shall be written in a clear legible character and in manner as now practised in the Registrar's office.

That, where a bill is amended on a re-engrossment thereof filed, and a copy of such re-engrossment served on the opposite party under the foregoing Orders, it shall not hereafter be necessary for the plaintiff to pay such opposite party the usual sum of twenty shillings unless a further answer be required.

That in the case of any person being committed to prison upon attachment or other process issued from this Court for a contempt or otherwise in not paying costs or any other sum of money directed or decreed to be paid by this Court, in case the party, at whose instance such
