Newwich, Conn., July 6.—At the conclusion of the evening performance of the John B. Dorris-John L. Sullivan circus last night, there was a great mob of athletes and employees over the greater portion of the city in search of a sheriff to serve an attachment on Sullivan & Dorris property, claiming arrears in salaries. A party of eighteen roared the residents of the city to the city hall, where they met local Deputy Sheriff Skorey, who was finally secured and accompanied the party to the circus lot, where Sheriff Joab Rogers and a large crowd had preceded them. Sheriff Rogers, who was a very big, rugged fellow, told the party that he would not move the property until they paid the salaries. After parleying for a time Sullivan reached for the sheriff who weighs about 190 pounds, caught him by the coat-collar with one hand and gently set him upon the ground with the other. The sheriff, the pugilist, but no one present dared make the attempt. The proprietors effected an arrangement with their employees and the show left the city at an early hour this

22nd August, July 5.—A most disastrous fire occurred here this evening at 8 o'clock through which about four thousand of the two cars belonging to the Grand Trunk Railway and about one hundred and fifty feet of the south landing pier, the property of the Government, were burned. With the greatest difficulty the citizens prevented the fire from running up the entire length of the dock, and but for the strenuous efforts made the loss would have been many thousands of dollars. The steamer P. Gross had discharged her cargo of tin just an hour or two before the fire was discovered, at which time everything was safe. At present nothing definite is known as to the origin of the fire.

MARTSVILLE, Cal., July 5.—A disastrous fire broke out here early this morning, raging in the block in which the most valuable business houses in the city are located.

STANTON, Mich., July 5.—The entire south side of Main street, in the village of 1 Brides, four miles north of here, was swept by fire this morning at 3 o'clock. The hotel, post-office and main business portion of the town were destroyed. The loss

CADILLAC, Mich., July 5.—The business part of Lake City was burned shortly after midnight. The fire started in VanArman's saloon and swept everything for two blocks on both sides of Main street. The newspaper was burned, but the Independent was saved, being in an isolated building. The loss is at least $75,000, with little or no insurance. There was no fire protection in Lake City, as was shown by Cadillac being

The barn of Mr. Wm. Trembley, St. Lawrence, was destroyed by fire last (Wednesday) night. There was no insurance. The fire was the work of an incendiary. A large quantity of hay was destroyed.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. July 6.—A boarding house kept by Charles Payne on the west end, was burned on Wednesday night. Mrs. Payne was burned to death.

LINDRAY, July 6.—Yesterday afternoon a fire occurred at Fells station, on the toria division of the Grand Trunk Railway, a few miles north of Fensel Fells, a woodyard, owned by Mr. S. Swan. Fensel Fells, containing thousands of ties, posts and a great number of telegraph poles and a large quantity of wood, was a large lumber yard, and the fire was a serious loss.

CAMPBELLFORD, July 6.—The barn contents belonging to James Stillman, Seymour township, were burned this noon, along with about 100,000 shingles Mr. Stillman was cutting shingles with a portable steam engine, and the cause
