

such a case in respect thereof as was necessary under the previous practice of the Court.

That the Master shall be at liberty to examine any creditor or other person coming in to claim before him, either upon written interrogatories, or viva voce, or in both modes as the nature of the case may appear to him to require, the evidence upon such examination being taken down at the time by the Master or by the Master's Clerk in his presence, and preserved in order that the same may be used by the Court, if necessary.

That, if any party wish to complain of any matter introduced into any state of facts, affidavit, or other proceeding before the Master, on the ground that it is scandalous or impertinent, or that any examination taken in the Master's office is insufficient, he shall be at liberty without any order of reference by the Court to take out a warrant for the Master to examine such matter, and the Master shall have authority to expunge any such matter which he shall find to be scandalous or impertinent.

That, whenever in any proceeding before the Master the same Solicitor is employed for two or more parties, such Master may at his discretion require that any of the said parties shall be represented before him by a distinct Solicitor, and may refuse to proceed until such party is so represented.

That every person, not being a party in any cause, who has obtained an Order or in whose favour an Order shall have been made, shall be entitled to enforce obedience to such Order by the same process as if he were a party to the cause, and every person, not being a party in any cause against whom obedience to the Order of the Court may be enforced, shall be liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to such Order as if he were a party in the cause.

That in the Reports made by the Master of the Court no part of any state of fact, charge, affidavit, deposition, examination or answer brought in or used before them, shall be stated or recited; but such state of facts, charge, affidavit, deposition, examination or answer shall be identified, specified, and referred to so as to inform the Court of what state of facts, charge, affidavit, deposition, examination or answer was so brought in or used.

That a creditor, who has come in and established his debt before the Master under a decree or order in a suit, shall be entitled to the costs of so establishing his debt, and the same shall be taxed by the Master and added to his debt.
