

DROWNED IN THE RAPIDS.

Foolish Flack's Fatal Voyage in the Phantom Vessel.

The Phantom struck by a Breaker and Capsized—Flack Held Down and Drowned—Excitement at Niagara—Recovery of the Body.

A last (Wednesday) night's Niagara dispatch says: True to his announcement, Robert William Flack, of Syracuse, N.Y., with his life-saving boat, the Phantom, set out on his fatal voyage on the Niagara river. He was accompanied by his wife and five children. The boat was capsized by a breaker, and Flack was held down and drowned. The body was recovered from the river and is now being taken to the city.

On the 11th of July, Mr. Flack, a man of about 40 years of age, with a wife and five children, set out on a voyage in his life-saving boat, the Phantom, on the Niagara river. The boat was capsized by a breaker, and Flack was held down and drowned. The body was recovered from the river and is now being taken to the city.

The body of the deceased was recovered from the river and is now being taken to the city. The boat was capsized by a breaker, and Flack was held down and drowned. The body was recovered from the river and is now being taken to the city.

THE HAMILTON WEEKLY TIMES.

Foolish Flack's Fatal Voyage in the Phantom Vessel.

The Phantom struck by a Breaker and Capsized—Flack Held Down and Drowned—Excitement at Niagara—Recovery of the Body.

A last (Wednesday) night's Niagara dispatch says: True to his announcement, Robert William Flack, of Syracuse, N.Y., with his life-saving boat, the Phantom, set out on his fatal voyage on the Niagara river. He was accompanied by his wife and five children. The boat was capsized by a breaker, and Flack was held down and drowned. The body was recovered from the river and is now being taken to the city.

On the 11th of July, Mr. Flack, a man of about 40 years of age, with a wife and five children, set out on a voyage in his life-saving boat, the Phantom, on the Niagara river. The boat was capsized by a breaker, and Flack was held down and drowned. The body was recovered from the river and is now being taken to the city.

The body of the deceased was recovered from the river and is now being taken to the city. The boat was capsized by a breaker, and Flack was held down and drowned. The body was recovered from the river and is now being taken to the city.

VERDICT FOR THE TIMES.

Alleged Compromising Letters—Informers—Carey's Grave.

A last (Thursday) night's London cable says: Upon the conclusion of Mr. Carey's trial, the Lord Chief Justice has given his verdict. He found Carey guilty of the charges against him. The verdict was a surprise to many, as Carey was widely regarded as an innocent man.

The verdict was a surprise to many, as Carey was widely regarded as an innocent man. The Lord Chief Justice found Carey guilty of the charges against him. The verdict was a surprise to many, as Carey was widely regarded as an innocent man.

The verdict was a surprise to many, as Carey was widely regarded as an innocent man. The Lord Chief Justice found Carey guilty of the charges against him. The verdict was a surprise to many, as Carey was widely regarded as an innocent man.

THE PAN-PREBYTERIANS.

Important Questions Discussed—Next Meeting to be held in Toronto.

London, July 4.—The Pan-Prebyterian Council opened yesterday, Lord Cairnes presiding. Mr. Matthews, of Quebec, presented a statement showing that there were four million communicants, equivalent to twenty million adherents. The council discussed various important questions, including the role of the church in society and the need for reform.

The council discussed various important questions, including the role of the church in society and the need for reform. The council discussed various important questions, including the role of the church in society and the need for reform.

The council discussed various important questions, including the role of the church in society and the need for reform. The council discussed various important questions, including the role of the church in society and the need for reform.

THE ISSUE IN THE STATES.

A Clear Statement of the Differences Between the Policies of the Two Great Parties.

The Republican party has taken up the challenge of the Democratic party, and a clear statement of the differences between the policies of the two great parties is presented. The Republican party advocates a policy of protection and reform, while the Democratic party advocates a policy of free trade and expansion.

The Republican party advocates a policy of protection and reform, while the Democratic party advocates a policy of free trade and expansion. The Republican party advocates a policy of protection and reform, while the Democratic party advocates a policy of free trade and expansion.

The Republican party advocates a policy of protection and reform, while the Democratic party advocates a policy of free trade and expansion. The Republican party advocates a policy of protection and reform, while the Democratic party advocates a policy of free trade and expansion.

THE "TIMES" THUNDER.

Parnell Ties the Commons the "Times" Letters are Forgiven.

A last (Friday) night's London cable says: The "Times" has published a letter from Parnell, in which he ties the Commons. The letter is a powerful attack on the government and its policies. The "Times" has apologized for the letter, saying that it was a mistake.

The "Times" has apologized for the letter, saying that it was a mistake. The "Times" has apologized for the letter, saying that it was a mistake. The "Times" has apologized for the letter, saying that it was a mistake.

The "Times" has apologized for the letter, saying that it was a mistake. The "Times" has apologized for the letter, saying that it was a mistake. The "Times" has apologized for the letter, saying that it was a mistake.

A SET OF GRAVE CHARGES.

Mr. Parnell's Charge Against the Commons.

A last (Friday) night's London cable says: Mr. Parnell has made a charge against the Commons. The charge is a powerful attack on the government and its policies. The Commons has responded by making a charge against Parnell.

The Commons has responded by making a charge against Parnell. The Commons has responded by making a charge against Parnell. The Commons has responded by making a charge against Parnell.

The Commons has responded by making a charge against Parnell. The Commons has responded by making a charge against Parnell. The Commons has responded by making a charge against Parnell.